Biography

Ms. Weisberg practices exclusively in the area of family law. She was born in Washington, D.C. in 1950. She received her B.A. from George Washington University in 1972, and her J.D. With Honors from George Washington University's National Law Center in 1976. She is a member of the District of Columbia, Maryland and United States Supreme Court Bars. In addition to her practice, Ms. Weisberg has worked with the American Bar Association's Child Support Project educating attorneys, judges and court personnel nationally on interstate child support enforcement laws and procedures. She has contributed to various legal publications on topics including custody, evidence, long-arm jurisdiction in interstate child support cases, and implementation of the Child Support Enforcement Amendments of 1984. In addition to litigation, Ms. Weisberg is experienced in divorce mediation and in collaborative law. She is rated "AV" with Martindale-Hubbell, and is experienced in all aspects of domestic relations practice.
